

Pursuant to KSA 74-8751(b), the executive director issues the following directive regarding reciprocal certification for gaming suppliers:

1. A gaming supplier may be granted temporary reciprocal certification if it meets all of the following conditions:
  - a. Provides evidence of current licensure or certification in these states, which have standards that are comprehensive, thorough and provide similar adequate safeguards as are required by Kansas' certification requirements:
    - i. Illinois,
    - ii. Indiana,
    - iii. Iowa,
    - iv. Missouri, and
    - v. New Jersey.

A variance for not being licensed in one of these states may be sought from the executive director and only will be granted upon a showing of good cause and at the discretion of the executive director.
  - b. Completes all business entity and personal (Level I, II and III) background disclosures as required by applicable rules, regulations and policies of the Racing and Gaming Commission. Such forms must be completed in their entirety but only include information or disclosures for persons or entities owning 5 percent or more of the supplier.
  - c. Submits a deposit for background investigation fees in an amount as determined by the executive director.
  - d. Attaches to its submission a letter declaring that the supplier:
    - i. is seeking temporary reciprocal certification;
    - ii. that it has completed all required business entity and personal (Level I, II and III) background disclosure forms for those persons and entities owning 5 percent or more of the supplier;
    - iii. agrees to comply with the KRGC's rules, policies, and regulations, to the extent not in conflict with this directive; and
    - iv. has attached the required background investigation fee, made payable to the Kansas Racing and Gaming Commission.
2. Upon submission of all required documents and a completion review by KRGC licensing and security staff, a temporary reciprocal certification may be issued.
3. A permanent reciprocal certification may be issued when the gaming supplier meets the following conditions:

- a. The gaming supplier has received a temporary reciprocal certification;
  - b. The KRGC's security division has completed its investigation of the supplier's background; and
  - c. The investigation has been presented to and approved by the Racing and Gaming Commission.
4. If issued, a permanent reciprocal certification will be for an initial term of two years and will be renewable.
  5. A gaming supplier's failure to apply or qualify for a temporary or permanent reciprocal certification does not prohibit the supplier from seeking certification by any other applicable rules, regulations or policies of the Racing and Gaming Commission.
  6. This directive is effective April 9, 2009.
